

experience the synergy
of live music and dance

arraymusic

march 16, 1997

at the premiere dance theatre
harbourfront centre

"Arraymusic is one of North America's more astonishing founts of new music"

the village voice, new york part of

musicDANCEarray

march 11 ~ 22, 1997

arraymusic

two explosive weeks of fresh, provocative performances of new music and dance featuring:

ARRAYMUSIC

"some of the most exciting performance works of this century"

THE GLOBE & MAIL

Chubb Insurance Dance Season

© Harbourfront centre

680News

NOW
TORONTO'S WEEKLY

Acclaimed new music ensemble ARRAYMUSIC in concert with some of Canada's finest composers, musicians and dancers.

- Henry Kucharzyk's beautifully conceived composition Room creates "a stage play without words".
- Clarinetist Robert W. Stevenson and dancer Peggy Baker come together in La vie de bohème a playful, offbeat piece created by Michael J. Baker and Peggy Baker.
- Music from Flux is an engaging suite for clarinet and percussion by Robert W. Stevenson.
- The bracing, hypnotic Columbus by Michael J. Baker features the sparkling choreography of Christopher House and the Toronto Dance Theatre dancers.

ARRAYMUSIC

(with Peggy Baker and Toronto Dance Theatre)

March 16

Don't miss the other musicDANCEarray concert programs:

Toronto Dance Theatre

March 11, 13, 15, 18, 20, 22

Peggy Baker / Solo Dance

March 12, 14, 19, 21

Call the Harbourfront Centre Box Office at (416) 973-4000 to order tickets.

All performances begin at 8:00 pm.

$20 / $27 / $32 regular

$16 / $22 students, seniors, and dance professionals

20% off tickets for your second concert,

25% off ticket purchases to all 3 concert programs